Cdr. George F. Moran

Dear George:

I have now been in this job for almost eighteen months. As you know it is one of the most interesting and challenging spots in Washington--perhaps anywhere.

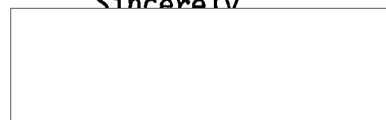

I thought it might be fun to get together with all of those who have survived this office to learn how you managed to escape in one piece. And I suspect you may also have some advice about how we might do things better.

Please join me and other former CIA public affairs officers for an informal reunion at the Agency Headquarters on Tuesday, 3 October.

We will gather in my office at 11:00 a.m. for an hour or so to talk about Agency public affairs and then move up to the seventh floor for lunch.

I am happy to hear from [redacted] that she talked to you by phone and you accepted. I do look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely

Herbert E. Hetu
Director of Public Affairs
